VISUAL THESIS

Soft enough to underestimate.
Pretty enough to notice.
Sleepy until he focuses.

Riven reads warm, languid, and approachable at first glance. His dominance comes from presence and behavior, not harsh visual signaling.

IDENTITY ANCHORS

- Age Early 30s
- Face Softly rounded adult face
- Skin Very pale, cool-neutral
- Hair Dark charcoal-grey, tousled
- Eyes Warm brown, heavy-lidded
- Mouth Full, soft, expressive
- Facial hair Very subtle stubble
- Default read Sleepy, pretty, self-possessed

CORE PRESENCE

Quietly dominant. Observant. Faintly amused. Gentle-looking without ever seeming timid. The face invites closeness; the expression suggests he already knows exactly what he is doing.

RIVEN

DETAILED APPEARANCE SPEC

FACE SHAPE

Softly rounded adult face with gentle facial harmony and subtle cheek fullness. Adult male proportions are important: pretty and soft, but not juvenile or baby-faced.

EYES

Warm dark-brown eyes. Heavy-lidded and slightly downturned, creating the sleepy-bunny baseline. His gaze should feel relaxed and languid rather than vacant. When focused, the eyes become noticeably more alert without changing shape.

BROWS

Thick, natural brows with a mild soft arch. They should frame the eyes without creating a permanently severe or aggressive expression.

NOSE

Medium, straight nose with a softly rounded tip. Balanced and natural rather than sharp, tiny, or dramatically sculpted.

MOUTH

Full, soft lips with a slightly fuller lower lip. The mouth is a key identity feature: pretty at rest, especially effective with a faint near-smirk or restrained amusement.

HAIR

Dark charcoal-grey, not pure black and not silver-white. Medium length, layered, fluffy, and deliberately tousled. Long soft bangs fall across the forehead and partly over the eyes. Hair should feel touchable and lived-in, never slick or rigid.

SKIN

Very pale with cool-neutral undertones: indoor-creature pale, not sun-kissed. Keep natural softness and faint facial texture. Subtle under-eye shadows are welcome and help preserve the sleepy, early-30s read.

FACIAL HAIR

Very subtle stubble only. Enough texture to support his age and maturity, never enough to become a beard or visually harden the lower face.

EXPRESSION

Default expression is sleepy-neutral with restrained amusement. Relaxed, self-assured, and observant. Avoid constant smirking; the appeal is that tiny shift where affection, teasing, and trouble are all plausible.

STYLING BASELINE

Cozy, understated dark knitwear is a neutral test baseline. Use soft warm indoor light. Wardrobe should support the face rather than define the character.

ANTI-DRIFT GUARDRAILS

- Not teenage, childlike, or baby-faced.
- Not gaunt, angular, or built around a giant square jaw.
- Not aggressive, scowling, sinister, or permanently predatory.
- Not tan, sun-kissed, or outdoorsy-glowing.
- Hair remains charcoal-grey, not black, white, or bright silver.
- Eyes remain warm brown, not blue, grey, or silver.
- No heavy beard or thick facial hair.
- Softness is genuine; dominance should not require visual posturing.

NOT YET LOCKED

Height, body build, tattoos, piercings, and full wardrobe system remain open canon.
